VISION

The Vision of SIPARD is to focus on the policies and programmes that benefit the rural poor, strive to energise the democratic decentralization processes, improve the operation and efficiency of rural personnel, promote transfer of technology through its training and create environmental awareness.

About The Institute

The State Institute of Public Administration and Rural Development (SIPARD) is a composite institute functioning both as the State Administrative Training Institute (ATI) and the State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD) for the State of Tripura.

The Institute is functioning under the registered Society called, 'Society for Training and Research on Public Administration and Rural Development'. It is a registered Autonomous Body and registered as a society under the Registration of Societies Act, 1860. The institute is functioning popularly in the name of the "State Institute of Public Administration and Rural Development" (SIPARD). It functions under the supervision of the General Administration (Personnel & Training) Department of the State Government

Research on various issues like administrative, social, developmental, technological, environmental etc, as well as, consultancy services are some of the different activities of SIPARD. The Institute was set up in1987 with the name "Administrative Training Institute" and functioned as an Apex Training Institute of the State with the mandate to train the staff and officials at various levels of the State Government. In 1999, the Institute was renamed as "State Institute of Public Administration and Rural Development (SIPARD)" when it also started functioning as the 'State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD)'.

Location

     The SIPARD is situated in a campus of 7.2 acres of land at Arundhuti Nagar (A.D. Nagar), Agartala. The locality in which it is located is called Camper Bazaar. The Post Office is Sarva Dharma Mission (S.D Mission) and is under the jurisdiction of the A.D Nagar Police Station.

     SIPARD is in an institutional area. On it's opposite is the Panchayati Raj Training Institute (PRTI) of the Rural Development and Panchayat Department, Regional Survey and Training Institute (RSTI) of the Land Records and Settlement Department. To the Institutes right are the Cooperative Training Institute, under the Cooperative Department, Swavalamban and Rural Development Self Employment Training Institute (RuDSETI), under the Rural Development Department.

     SIPARD is only 5.3 Kms from the City Centre of Agartala, the state's capital. It is well connected by Air and Rail. SIPARD is 14.1 Kms from the Maharaja Bir Bikram Airport and 5.8 Kms from Agartala Railway Station. The three major bus terminals connecting the city to other districts and the Inter State Bus Terminal (ISBT) are located not very far from the Institute i.e within a distance of 4 to 9.6 Kms.

Research and Training Wings of SIPARD

On 17th March 2021the Constitution of Training and Research Wings of SIPARD took place by Memorandum F.No.SIPARD/5.2(11)/2021/1349-53 where in, SIPARD, as the apex training Institution of the State, not only takes up capacity building of Rural Development and Panchayat Raj officials and functionaries, but also is expected to fulfill its role for the capacity building gaps of the State Government functionaries. It is also expected to undertake or cause to undertake Research/Action Research with an overall aim to improve the training curriculum and Governance principles.

In doing so, the need to coordinate with several departments and institutions on a continual basis has rendered the imminent need to establish two distinct wings namely, Research Wing and Training Wing to further the activities of the Institute in a sustained manner. The two wings are headed by a senior faculty of the Institute who are being assisted by fulltime staffs of the Institute. The activities of the Research Wing inter alia are :

- To coordinate for undertaking Research studies by the faculty of the Institute.
- To explore arrangement of fund for research studies and coordinate with outside Institutes
- Document and disseminate research studies conducted by the Institute
- Compile and re-circulate important studies conducted by other Institutions through newsletter of the Institute
- Conduct impact assessment of training and other activities of the Institute
- Prepare, compile, circulate, re-circulate good practices and case studies within and those relevant to the state
- Explore possibilities of collaborating with Institutes taking up similar studies
- Explore possibilities of SIPARD's faculty members as guides under JRF scheme of Universities
- All issues pertaining to Centre for Good Governance and
- Maintain a library of research studies pertaining to Governance.

The Training Wing, will plan, design, formulate, implement, conduct, coordinate, assess and evaluate the training courses conducted by the Institute. It will implement emerging trends of training for the Institute as a whole for the State. The activities of the Training Wing would be to :

- Prepare, maintain and implement training plan for capacity building of all Government Employees of the State
- Prepare Annual Training Calendar and coordinate with funding Institutes to send proposals
- Monitor and evaluate in-house and off-campus trainings of SIPARD
- Maintain a list/pool of master trainers, on different topics
- Maintain training database of employees in coordination with Training Nodal Officers of Departments and Field Officers
- Interface with Departments and Training Managers to enable trainings across the state
- Hold Training Quality Improvement Management Committee (TQIMC) Meetings
- Augment training infrastructure in the Institute and District/Block/Nagar Panchayat (NP) level training infrastructure for Off-Campus Trainings.
- Network with other National level training Institutes and
- Maintain a library of documents associated with training.

Centre for Good Governance in SIPARD

For improving the standard of governance, the State Government of Tripura felt a need to establish a center to undertake Governance reforms in Tripura by bringing together knowledge, soft skills, technology and people. Thus, the Government of Tripura decided to set up a Centre for Good Governance in the SIPARD vide notification No. F.SIPARD/2(41)/2020 dated 28.6.220 with the following objectives :

- To study and assimilate good governance knowledge and practices in other states and countries, including the private and academic sectors
- To identify governance gaps through systematic research and developing suitable social accountability tools and techniques for addressing those gaps
- To improve mechanisms for promoting citizen centric governance through capacity building
- To create a platform for networking with different organisations and individuals working in the field of good governance in such a way that they are mutually benefitted
- To function as a state repository on information on best practices, initiatives and methodologies that promote good governance, e-governance, innovation and change management within the government
- To organize seminars, conferences, workshops and trainings on good governance and
- To provide consultancy to other requisition agencies.

Accordingly, Shri. Pramatha Ranjan Bhattacharjee, IAS(Retd), joined as Head, Centre for Good Governance on 23.08.2021.

Induction Training of TCS 2021 Probationers

The 2021 (Direct Recruits) batch of Tripura Civil Service (TCS) Officers underwent 35 days Induction Training at SIPARD from 4th February to 25th March 2022. The batch consists of 30 young, and enthusiastic Officers and 6 of them are Lady Officers.

Like that of TCS 2020 Batch's Induction Training, the Induction Training for the 2021 batch was also conducted during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Topics Covered during the Induction Trainings, were on Administrative matters, Financial, Conduct Rules, Disciplinary Proceedings, Introduction to the various provisions of the CrPC and IPC, Revenue Matters, Introduction to 6th Schedule Areas (TTAADC), various Line Departments, Soft Skills etc.

The 2021 TCS Batch were sent for 10 days 'Exposure Trip' to the Administrative Training Institute (ATI), Mysore for a feel of how various programmes are implemented and the functioning of Government Administration in the bigger states of mainland India. The Exposure Visit was greatly appreciated by the Trainee Officers and their feedback of the visit appears to be very useful for discharging their function as civil Service Officers.

The Trainee Officers as a part of their assignment contributed towards a 'Talent Magazine' which is a compilation of their inner talents. Each Officer also conducted a short research/evaluation study during the period of their Induction Training on various development issues of their own choice. Both the compilations have been printed for reference of the future batches.

The batch is endowed with great potential and zeal which augurs well for the development of the state and its people. SIPARD wishes them all the very best in their future endeavors in discharging their duties under different capacities of Administrators and agents of development of the state and the country.
